"Augusta, Ga., May 26th.

"Augusta Ga., May 26th the People of the South:
On account of the great interest manifed in the reported postponement of Southern States Exposition of Chicanad in response to numerous telephic inquiries, I make the following tenents:

The announcement of the postponement the Southern States Exposition at Chidennial was totally unauthorized by the Advisory Board. Neither the chairman nor the secretary of the board authorized any such statement. The dispatch sent sold from Chicago last night by the Asso-ated Press that the secretary of the board at Augusta made such a proposi-tion in the interest of the Tennessee Conennial is wholly unfounded. Before my Washington, last week, in list interest of the exposition, I wrote a Wood s letter to Major J. W. Thomas, president 1:151-2.

of the Tennessee Centennial, who was until recently the Tennessee member of the Advisory Board, deprecating the inac-tion of Tennessee. In this letter I in-formed Major Thomas that if Tennessee formed Mājor Thomas that if Tennessee was hostile or indifferent to the Southern States Exposition I would resign my position as chairman forthwith. The answer to this letter confirmed me in the belief that nothing had been done in Tennessee, and Major Thomas informed ma that it would be impossible to prepare Tennessee's exhibit in three months. I was in Washington when Major Thomas's reply to my letter reached Augusta. On reply to my letter reached Augusta. On its receipt, General-Managor Deberard and Mr. Thomas K. Scott, who has taken an active interest in the exposition, visit-ed Major Thomas in Nashville. The re-sult of their visit is briefly summed up in the statement that Major Thomas went the statement that Major Thomas went

STUART, VA., May 25.—(Special.)—The Democrats of Patrick held a large and enthusiastic meeting to-day to elect deicgates to the Staunton convention.

Resolutions were unanimously adopted favoring the free and unlimited coinage of silver at a ratio of 13 to 1, and the unit rule. The course of Hon. J. W.
Daniel and House of Representatives
Senate and House of Representatives
Senate and House of Representatives

here this week has been unprecedented
in the history of Dry-Goods advertising.
Thousands of yards of merchandise for less prices than the mills can turn it out,
and so much of it that instead of enough for hour's selling, all Monday and Tuesday have the public been buying and profiting by them, and still enough for to-day and the balance of the week.

Take Wash Goods as an example of remarkable selling:

Shoe selling, such as takes place in no other store the city ever, is emphasized by such special offerings as this:

Just 40 pairs of Ladies' Dongola Kid Low-Button Shoes, in the latest shapes, are here for selling that are the exact kind we have been seiling for two dollars. This lot represents the last the manufacturer will make of this kind for the season, and the under-price at which they were bought makes the price to you now $1.25 a pair. These are the best two dollars' worth of Shoes we could have given you 24 hours ago. What say you then to buying them now for $1.25?

Tis hard to break the tender chord, When love has bound the heart; Yield love has bound the heart;

Tis hard—so hard—to speak the words,
Must we forever part?

Dearest loved one, we have laid thee
In thy peaceful grave's embrace;
But thy memory will be cherished

Till we see thy heavenly face.
